

Freek Ossel is Alderman for Harbours, Schiphol, Poverty, Work and Income, and Diversity for the Amsterdam City Council since 2008.

He started his career with the Amsterdam City in 1979 as a public administration assistant in the General clerk's office of Amsterdam City Council. From 1996 to 2000 he was secretary/director in the South East urban district of Amsterdam City Council. He was the director of social, economic and cultural development sector for the Administrative department of the Amsterdam City Council.

Over the past years Freek Ossel chaired the Advisory and Coaching Centre for Education (Advies- en Begeleiding Centrum voor het onderwijs) in Amsterdam (ABC). He has specialized in Labor market and Diversity.

<http://www.iamsterdam.com/en/living/intro-amsterdam/citygovernment/mayors-aldermen/alderman-ossel>